Book your Adobe workshop

To enable your workforce to adopt the technology as affectively as possible, Phoenix provide a wide variety of training and support, facilitating this in several ways:

Instructor led workshops: these can be delivered face-to-face or remote, providing a virtual training experience

Video content: short 'how to' topics recorded within your own tenant to walk your staff through the basics of specific workflow streams

Infographics or guides: covering the 'how to' of a topic/ product provided in a PDF version branded to your organisation
